

Countries where homosexuality is illegal

AMERICAS

- | | |
|-------------------|------------------------------|
| Antigua & Barbuda | Jamaica |
| Barbados | St. Kitts & Nevis |
| Belize | St. Lucia |
| Dominica | St. Vincent & the Grenadines |
| Grenada | Trinidad & Tobago |
| Guyana | |

AFRICA

- | | | | |
|----------|------------|--------------|-----------|
| Algeria | Ghana | Mozambique | Swaziland |
| Angola | Guinea | Namibia | Tanzania |
| Botswana | Kenya | Nigeria | Togo |
| Burundi | Lesotho | Sao Tome | Tunisia |
| Cameroon | Liberia | Senegal | Uganda |
| Comoros | Libya | Seychelles | Zambia |
| Egypt | Malawi | Sierra Leone | Zimbabwe |
| Eritrea | Mauritania | Somalia | |
| Ethiopia | Mauritius | South Sudan | |
| Gambia | Morocco | Sudan | |

Also in Europe and worth mentioning but not among the countries with laws against homosexuality are:

- Russia, which enacted a law in 2013 prohibiting any positive mention of homosexuality in the presence of minors, including online.
- Ukraine, which has considered, but so far has not adopted, a similar law against "gay propaganda."
- Moldova, which adopted and then repealed such a law in 2013.

ASIA AND MIDDLE EAST

- | | | | |
|-------------|----------|----------------------|----------------------|
| Afghanistan | Kuwait | Pakistan | Syria |
| Bangladesh | Lebanon | Palestine/Gaza Strip | Turkmenistan |
| Bhutan | Malaysia | Qatar | United Arab Emirates |
| Brunei | Maldives | Saudi Arabia | Uzbekistan |
| India | Myanmar | Singapore | Yemen |
| Iran | Oman | Sri Lanka | |

OCEANIA

- | | |
|--------------|------------------|
| Cook Islands | Papua New Guinea |
| Indonesia | Samoa |
| Kiribati | Solomon Islands |
| Nauru | Tonga |
| Palau | Tuvalu |